DEDICATION . . .

In recognition of the faithful service of Dr. James Stewart Grim, we gratefully dedicate our yearbook to him. Dr. Grim has taught at Kutztown State Teachers College for forty-three years, and has recently returned after a brief retirement, because of a vacancy on the teaching staff. The student body as well as the faculty welcomes him back and hopes he may continue to serve our institution for many years to come.

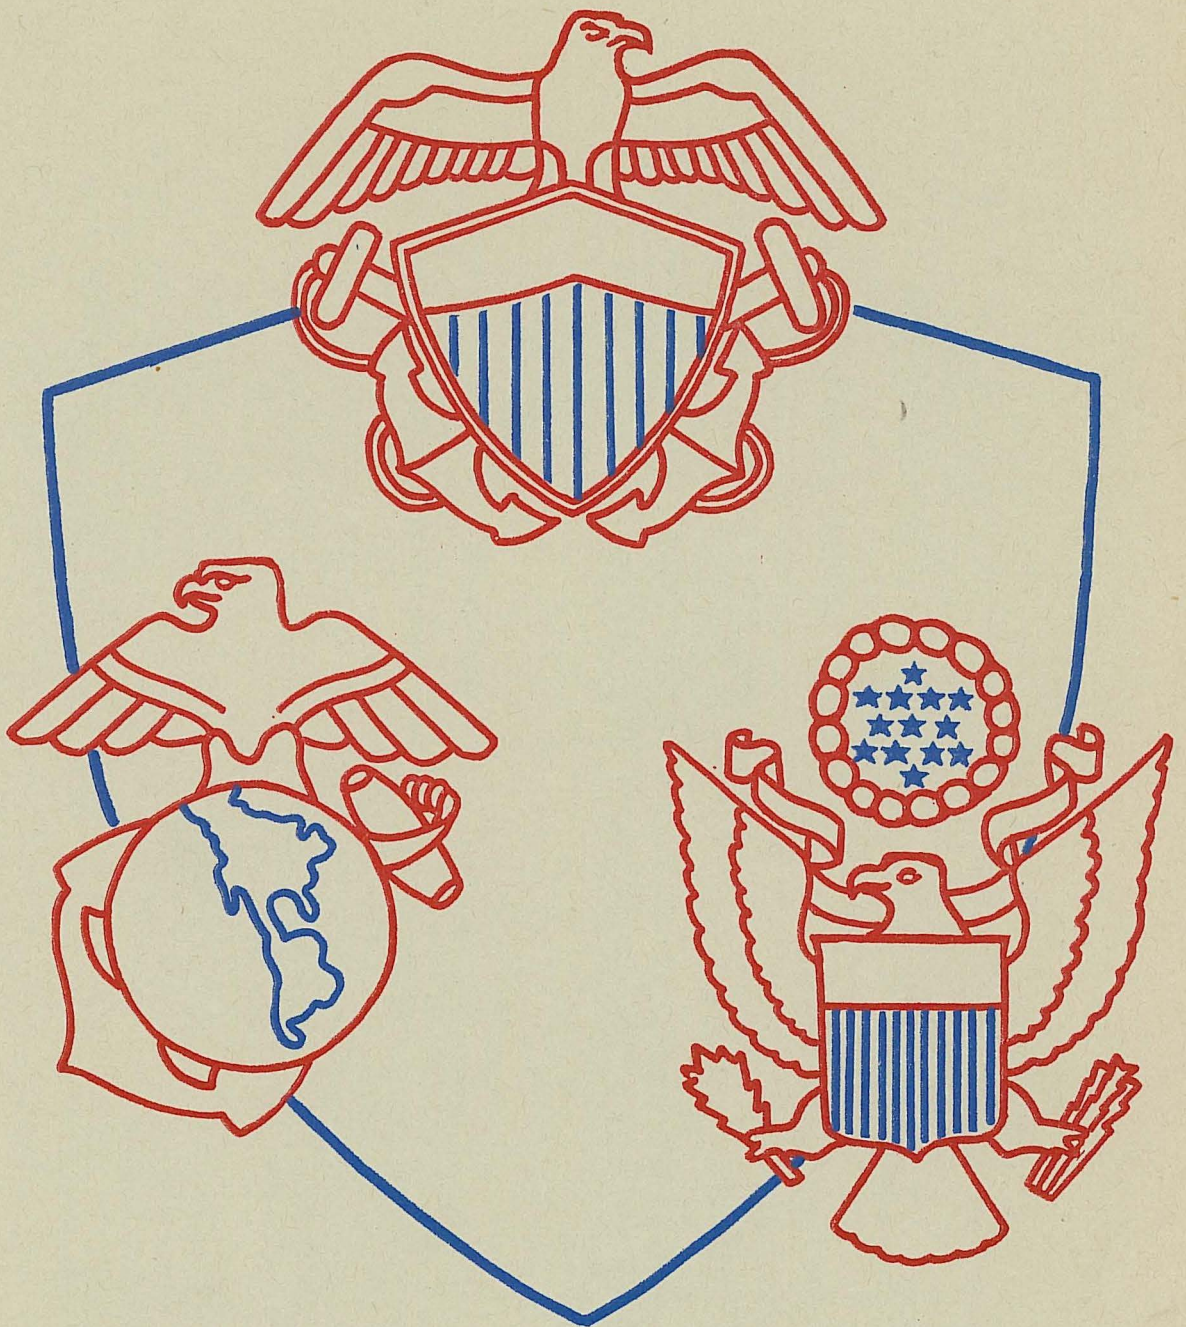

DR. JAMES STEWART GRIM

FOREWORD . . .

“Not what you get, but what you give is important.” Dr. Grim has lived up to that famous motto of his in the forty-three years he has served our institution. Today graduates and under-graduates of Kutztown State Teachers College, together with other boys from every part of this great nation of ours, are giving their services to their country. In homes, schools and factories, Americans are serving America in every way possible. This is a generation of people who serve.
