Dear Madam or Sir:

Each fall, the Pennsylvania Counseling Associations holds its annual conference. This year, our 41s Annual PCA Conference, "One Voice: Promoting Our Professional Counselor Identity" is scheduled for October 30 to November 1, 2009 at the Penn Stater Conference Center Hotel in State College PA and our keynote speaker is Dr. Samuel Gladding from Wake Forrest University. Dr. Gladding has authored over 100 publications related to group work, family therapy, and the creative arts.

The Pennsylvania Counseling Association is an organization of Professional Counselors who value a collegial community, continuous learning, service to others, visionary leadership, and a commitment to professional ethics and standards of practice. There are approximately 21,000 Professional Counselors practicing in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. Some places of employment include schools and universities, hospitals, mental health agencies, the military, law enforcement and correctional institutions, and private practices. Please visit our website at www.pacounseling.org for more details about us and our conference.

As the chairperson of the 2009 conference, my goal is to promote partnerships between the PCA and organizations throughout our state. I would like to invite your organization to join in supporting our conference by placing an advertisement in the conference booklet or reserving space in our exhibition hall. I have included the registration form for advertisements and the application for exhibitors with this letter.

If I can be of further assistance to you, please contact me at 412-720-6404 or via email at jenn.eaton@verizon.net

Your consideration of this request is deeply appreciated.

Thank You,

Jennifer Eaton
PCA Conference Committee Chairperson, 2009
