ANNOUNCEMENTS

The following announcements were made:

1. The Executive Committee of the Faculty Senate will meet on Wednesday, March 27 at 10:00 a. m. All items for the agenda for the April meeting should be submitted to Chairman Monroe by this time.

2. Senators were asked to encourage their departments to do what they can in conserving energy. Where possible, car pools should be formed for traveling back and forth to the college.

3. All departments were notified that if they are electing new Faculty Senators for next year the name of the Senator-elect is to be submitted to Dr. Evans, Senate Secretary, by Friday, March 15.

4. Dr. Dreisbach briefly explained the rationale for a set of guidelines on interdisciplinary courses which was distributed to all Senators.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS

1. Curriculum revision for Advertising Design Program

Prof. Ottinger moved, with second by Dr. Evans, the approval of the proposal to revise the Advertising Design Program. After some discussion and further comments and clarification of the proposal by several members of the Fine Arts Department, Prof. Ottinger and Dr. Schatkowski moved to cut off debate. This motion carried, after which the motion to approve the proposal also carried.

2. Principles of Business Data Processing

Dr. Dreisbach and Prof. Klucsarits moved the approval of the course, Principles of Business Data Processing, presented by the Social Sciences Department. After some discussion on possible overlap with existing courses and availability of computer time and facilities for supporting additional courses, the motion carried.

3. Clinical Psychology

Dr. Dreisbach moved, with second by Prof. Ottinger, to approve the course, Clinical Psychology. Following a brief discussion, the motion carried.

NEW BUSINESS

1. Computer Techniques for Behavioral Sciences

Dr. Dreisbach moved, with second by Dr. Cook, to approve the course, Computer Techniques for Behavioral Sciences. After some discussion, Dr. Goldberg and Prof. Ottinger moved the previous question. The motion carried and then the motion to approve the course also carried.

2. Theatre History and Dramatic Literature in America from its Origins to the Present Day

It was moved by Dr. Dreisbach, seconded by Prof. Ottinger, to approve the course, Theatre History and Dramatic Literature in America from its Origins to the Present Day, presented by the Speech and Theatre Department. The motion carried.

3. Change of Course Title for Sp 205

Upon motion by Dr. Dreisbach and Prof. Morris, approval was given to change the course title for Sp 205 from "Speech for the Classroom Teacher" to "Communicative Disorders and the Classroom Teacher".

4. The Professional Context of Social Work Practice

Dr. Dreisbach and Prof. Ottinger moved approval of the course, The Professional Context of Social Work Practice. After some discussion, Prof. Ottinger and Dr. Schatkowski moved to cut off debate. The motion failed. After further discussion the motion to approve the course carried.

5. Proposed Modification of the Restriction on the Offering of the Course, An 190.

Dr. Webb moved, with second by Prof. Miller, to approve a proposal to modify an existing restriction on the offering of the course, An 190. Dr. Monroe stated the intent of the motion is to make it possible for the course to be taught by one member of either of the sponsoring departments. However, the wording of the proposal as presented by the Social Sciences Department to the Senate was ambiguous.

Dr. Siekmann moved that the item be tabled until next meeting. Dr. Dent seconded the motion. The motion passed.

The meeting adjourned at 5:45 p. m. by common consent.
