Jamie Hogan, Editor

- Spring edition was a great success with a full 18 pages of information.
- Next edition will have to correct the dates for the conference; Spring edition listed wrong weekend.
- Submissions for the Summer edition are due by June 9th.
- Have now worked it out (with a great deal of help from James Matta) that the printing company used will directly bill PCA
- I still have to buy stamps, last edition cost a little over $400. Are there any other options besides having the company I use complete and ship out the newsletters for me?
