Pennsylvania College Counseling Association
Quarterly Report
October 10, 2007

The re-organization and growth of the Association continues. An initial Exec Board meeting was conducted on June 28, 2007 at Saint Francis University. Since that meeting, the following significant developments have occurred:

- An open membership/Exec. Board meeting is scheduled for Saturday, October 20 at 5:00 p.m. at the site of the PCA conference in State College. The membership has been notified of this meeting.
- Work continues on the scheduling and coordination of a spring (April?) workshop on suicide intervention. This will be a one-day drive-in workshop, hosted by Shippensburg University and their Department of Counselor Education/Counseling Center.
- Phyllis Osisek, Director of Counseling at Ursinus University has assumed the position of Membership Coordinator.
- Elizabeth Gruber, Associate Professor, Department of Counselor Education, at California University at Pa has assumed the position of Recorder.
- The PaCCA website has been updated with current information.
- A letter from the President was sent to current members extending membership deadlines through the Spring of 2008. (Board directive).

Respectfully submitted,

David Wilson
President
