Minutes of the Faculty Senate Meeting
6 November 1975

The Faculty Senate held its regular meeting at 4:00 P.M. on Thursday, 6 November 1975, in the Library Science Reading Room of the Rohrbach Library, Chairman Goldberg presiding.

Present were Senators: Prof. Margaret Apostolos (for Prof. Curt Goldstaub), Prof. Clarence Arnold, Prof. Dennis Bonser, Prof. James Brasted, Dr. Frank Bucci, Prof. George Burwell, Prof. Frances Dreisbach, Prof. Patrick Duddy, Prof. Henriette Engelson, Prof. John Erdmann, Prof. Andrew Felkay, Prof. Earnest Foust, Dr. Claire Gilles, Dr. Gordon Goldberg, Dr. John Grossman, Dr. James Hershberger, Dr. Dalton Hunkins, Prof. William Kanasky, Prof. Frederick Keller, Dr. Richard Law, Dr. Raymond Lucas, Dr. William Marsh, Prof. Dorothy Moyer, Prof. Patricia Ori, Dr. Allen Pawling, Prof. Allen Schutt, Prof. Rosemarie Sloat, Dr. Ruth Stickney, Prof. Laree Trollinger, Prof. Karl Walter, Dr. Walter Warzeski (for Dr. Dodson Dreisbach); student representatives: Lisa Augustine and Gail Robinson; and guests: Dr. Lawrence Stratton and Frank McCracken. Senators absent were: Dr. Gilbert McKlveen, Prof. Joseph Patton, Dr. Roger Whitcomb, and Dr. William Worrell.

I. APPROVAL OF THE MINUTES OF THE PREVIOUS MEETING

Dr. Goldberg called for the approval of the minutes of the previous meeting, 2 October 1975. Dr. Hunkins made the following amendments to the minutes:

Amend page 3, paragraph 6, lines 6-7 to read: "All judicial bodies may impose all penalties, including recommendation for suspension from college."

Amend the paragraph regarding Graduate Council Business, page 5, to read as follows: "At the request of Dr. Drumm, Dean of the Graduate School, Dr. Hunkins presented a proposal, approved by the Graduate Council, to add Math 570: Principles of Computer Programming to the list of electives for the M.A. degree program in mathematics." Dr. Hunkins moved approval of the proposed revision. After Dr. Hershberger's second, the motion passed.

The minutes then stood approved as corrected.

II. ANNOUNCEMENTS

- A. Chairman Goldberg recognized Dr. Stratton, who extended to the Senate the following invitations: first, to meet with Mrs. Gladys Handy, Assistant Commissioner of Education, at 1:00 P.M. on Tuesday, 18 November 1975, in Room 4 of the Rohrbach Library; second, to meet with Jerome Ziegler, Commissioner of Education, at 1:00 P.M. on Wednesday, 3 December 1975, in Room 4 of the Rohrbach Library; and third, to attend the Student PSEA Forum at 3:00 P.M. on Wednesday, 3 December 1975, in the Auditorium of the Research and Learning Center.

- B. Dr. Goldberg announced the next meeting of the Faculty Senate: 4:00 P.M. on Thursday, 4 December 1975.
- C. Dr. Goldberg reported that he had received a letter from the History Department Ad Hoc Communications Committee on Article XII, Clarion State College. The Committee finds "the proposed system of evaluation set forth in the recently circulated new form of Article XII of the contract . . . counterproductive" and "unacceptable," and is asking faculty members in the State College System to work for significant modification of the proposed system. Dr. Goldberg said that his reply would point out that such matters are not within the jurisdiction of the Faculty Senate.
- D. The Chairman then ruled that a Senator-at-large who must be absent from a meeting of the Senate has the right to send an alternate.
- E. Finally, the Chairman reminded the Senate that matters for the agenda must be in writing, must bear the signatures of three Senators, and must be in his hands at least two weeks before the meeting of the Faculty Senate.

III. NEW BUSINESS

- A. Prof. Felkay reported that the Student/Faculty Committee on Student Affairs, at its meeting on 9 October 1975, had approved and forwarded to President Stratton the following amendment to the policy on the Activities Validation Sticker:

The existing policy shall be amended and extended to include "graduate students and those non-students who are spouses of undergraduate students or [are] employed by Kutztown State College (Commonwealth of Pennsylvania) and organizations affiliated with the college (e.g. Student Government Association employees and M. W. Wood Company employees)."

Dr. Goldberg said that at the last meeting of the Board President Stratton had presented the proposed amendment and the Trustees had approved it.

- B. Prof. Engelson read the following proposal from the Special Education Department: "Each department should select the time for its evening session courses in the same manner as it selects times for other courses." Prof. Engelson moved that the Senate accept the proposal. Dr. Marsh seconded the motion. After a brief discussion, Dr. Bucci moved to table the motion until Dean O'Loughlin's current survey of students' preferences is complete. Following Dr. Law's second, Dr. Bucci's motion passed.

IV. CURRICULUM COMMITTEE BUSINESS

On behalf of Dr. Dreisbach, Dr. Warzeski presented the following matters from the Curriculum Committee:

- A. A course entitled Film Animation submitted by the Department of Fine Arts. Prof. Keller moved the approval of the course. After Prof. Burwell's second the motion passed.
- B. A request to change the titles of Lib. 11 and 12 from Reference I and II to Information Needs and Services I and II, respectively. Dr. Marsh moved approval of the changes. Following Prof. Kanasky's second, the motion passed.
- C. Requests to change the titles of Lib 121 and 122 from Book Selection I and II to Resources for Children and Resources for Young Adults, respectively; and also to change the description of each course to read as follows:

Lib 121 Resources for Children 4 ch-3 sh

The study and evaluation of book and non-book materials suited to the needs and interests of children from the pre-school age to the adolescent period. The student is expected to read extensively and acquire techniques for presentation to children.

Lib 122 Resources for Young Adults

Survey of books and other media for youth in secondary and public libraries; techniques of stimulating use for recreational and curriculum-related interests.

Prof. Engelson moved acceptance of the requests. After Prof. Felkay's second, the motion carried. Dr. Law pointed out that the following editorial change was necessary in the description of Lib 122; add the word "schools" to complete the sense of "secondary and public libraries," so that the phrase will read "secondary schools and public libraries."

- D. Requests to change the title of Lib 330 from Instructional Materials to The Educational Program of the School Library Media Center; and to change the course description to read as follows:

Although primarily concerned with the location, evaluation, and interpretation of materials used in the educational program of the school, this course is designed to emphasize the development of the media center program as it is correlated with instructional objectives, teaching strategies, and curriculum design. Prerequisites: Information Needs & Services I, Cataloging I, and Audio-Visual Education.

Dr. Hunkins moved approval of the requested changes. Following Prof. Kanasky's second, the motion carried.

- E. A new course entitled Environmental Geology submitted by the Department of Physical Science. Prof. Walter moved to approve the course, and Prof. Schutt seconded the motion. Prof. Keller then moved to amend Part I, Course Description, in the following ways: in line 1, change "man" to "human beings"; and in line 2, change "his" to "their." Prof. Ori seconded the motion. On a vote by secret ballot, the motion to amend failed as follows: 12 votes Yes, 17 votes No, and 1 abstention. The original motion then passed.
- F. A new course entitled Pedology/Hydrology submitted by the Department of Physical Science. Prof. Walter moved to accept the course, and Prof. Schutt seconded the motion. Prof. Keller then moved to amend Part I, Course Description, as follows: in line 4, change "man" to "human beings." Prof. Ori seconded the motion. After a vote by secret ballot, the motion to amend failed as follows: 10 votes Yes, 19 votes No, and 1 abstention. After a suggestion from Prof. Foust, Dr. Goldberg asked that the Committee on Faculty Affairs meet to consider, among other things, what posture the Senate should take on "man." The Committee may be ready to report at the December meeting.
- G. A request from the Department of History for the following changes in titles and descriptions of courses:
1. Change the title of History 111 from History of Europe A to From Absolutism to Revolution, and the present course description to the following: This course is designed to study the political, economic, social and intellectual development of Europe in the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries.
 2. Change the title of History 112 from History of Europe B to Nineteenth Century Europe, and the present course description to read: A survey of political and diplomatic developments in Europe from the Congress of Vienna to the outbreak of World War I.
 3. Change the course description of History 380, Senior Seminar in History, to read as follows: Readings and discussions in historiography, philosophy of history and historical method. Emphasis will be placed on various schools of thought and interpretations concerning specific historical problems. Required of all Liberal Arts students concentrating in History.

4. Change the title of History 373 from Advanced Studies in the Non-Western World to Readings in the Non-Western World.
5. Change the title of History 374 from Advanced Studies in European History to Readings in European History.
6. Change the title of History 375 from Advanced Studies in American History to Readings in American History.

Prof. Felkay moved to accept the requests from the department of History. Following Prof. Dreisbach's second, the motion passed. After some discussion of the new title of History 111, Prof. Schutt moved that it be changed to read From Absolutism to Revolution in Europe. After Dr. Bucci's second, the motion passed.

V. GRADUATE COUNCIL BUSINESS

Dr. Drumm brought to the Senate the following new courses approved by the Graduate Council:

- A. A course entitled Advanced Molecular Biology submitted by the Department of Biology. Prof. Duddy moved the approval of the course. After Prof. Walter's second, the motion carried.
- B. A course entitled Relating the Arts to Education submitted by the Department of Elementary Education. Dr. Moyer moved the approval of the course. Following Prof. Arnold's second, the motion passed.

Dr. Hunkins moved for adjournment. Prof. Keller seconded the motion, and the meeting adjourned at 5:00 P.M.
