Goat and Rabbit Recipes Shared - Part II

Rose Smart

Follow this and additional works at: https://research.library.kutztown.edu/greenrevolution

Recommended Citation
Smart, Rose (1966) "Goat and Rabbit Recipes Shared - Part II," Green Revolution: Vol. 4 : Iss. 5 , Article 18.
Available at: https://research.library.kutztown.edu/greenrevolution/vol4/iss5/18 School of Living Trustees, cont'd

We are the concrete work of Leo Rainer, the cabinets and carpenters of Mr. Sprague, and the at­ ractive element in the $1.6 million stores by George Pettie.

I believe there are many more people will cross this threshold (we have it for two years to come), to enjoy, because we have separated the development and meaning of the homestead-Council of School of Living.

Reactions, Suggestions Wanted

Some persons who had an early chance of this property has imponed immediately Two are recurring.

"How absolutely marvelous about the modern homestead... and the 100 acres This is more like it. Now writ in the childhood of a lot of us) I don't mind. Here again, a

Thoughts on Homesteading. Part III—

We Must Not Only Grow Our
Food, But Preserve Itself

By Hal Porter

Keeping food would also pre­ tain, and I think that there then someone advocates going back ings and advising the drying, smoking and serving. This was one thing which a large number of homesteaders food saved in this way look better, vitamins, and even some of the sible poisons. It may entail a lot load, and it should help with some of this, cutting meat, too, etc. But then, perhaps, another person's attitude is all-important.

is no need to cut out the kitchen in a hurry he should sick to the unhealthy light of the city and suburban, and be dependent on the supermarket for existence.

This plagues the real differce between homesteading in the modern manner and the accepted American way of life. The city dweller is absolutely enclosed and isolated, and he has no remember the home remedies used in those times (included in the childhood of a lot of us)

I dry all tea leaves in small bags for a week. I put the bunches in a closet I jab a few holes under a shelf in my kitch­ can store food in a way keeping his food in a way that will preserve all the nutri­ ture of 1 cup flour, 1 T. power and cheese from goat milk. and bacteria. We pour our milk of time.

Goat Cheese and Butter

Q. I need help in making butters. I cannot get cream in my block of goat's milk. I am interested in getting cream from a goat ator, since this would be experts. It takes longer for cream to rise skimmed like cow's milk. Don't For that reason, the homestead ly quickly from surrounding odors butter. We pour our milk through a filter pad, set the jars to cool in cold water, and then in refrigerater. At one time we in one container, as in commercial out of the milk without a sepa­

Meetings Planned

NFAers Invited to Old Mill Center

Pennsylvania Natural Foods Associates will hold their state assembly in the Paintown Inn College, Carlisle, Pennsylvania.
Many School of Living members and friends will attend. All of these, and any other interested in the School of Living "idea," are invited to join us at Sunday.
June 12 (11 a.m.), at the new School of Living Center. Heath­

Goat's milk needs practically no work and cheese from goat milk.
and bacteria. We pour our milk
of time.

Letters, cont'd

TREICHLER HOME
of Walker, Iowa, is now leaving.

TREICHLER HOME
Leaving Us Their Iowa Tea Lore

By Hal Porter

We homesteaders must think in the chapter on "Beating ot the milk is, however.

Martha returned to Bill's paren­ leaders of the NF A meeting­ years, to make your own gas gen­ societies as a whole for his very doing so.

TREICHLER HOME
Leaving Us Their Iowa Tea Lore

By Hal Porter

We homesteaders must think
in the chapter on "Beating of making the good tea leaves and frans, and vegetables.

how to buy it. It is possible.

may be of work counters and tables,

Our January Green Revolu­

turkey. The interesting thing is that while the homestead are the concrete work of Leo Rainer, the cabinets and carpenters of Mr. Sprague, and the at­
ractive element in the $1.6 million stores by George Pettie.

I believe there are many more
people will cross this threshold (we have it for two years to come), to enjoy, because we have separated the development and meaning of the homestead-Council of School of Living.

Reactions, Suggestions Wanted

Some persons who had an early
chance of this property has im-
poned immediately Two are recurring.

"How absolutely marvelous about
the modern homestead... and the 100 acres
This is more like it. Now
writ in the childhood of a lot of us)
I don't mind. Here again, a

Thoughts on Homesteading. Part III—

We Must Not Only Grow Our
Food, But Preserve Itself

By Hal Porter

Keeping food would also pre­
tain, and I think that there
then someone advocates going back
ings and advising the drying, smoking and serving. This was one thing
which a large number of homesteaders
food saved in this way look better,
vitamins, and even some of the

sible poisons. It may entail a lot
load, and it should help with some of this, cutting
meat, too, etc. But then, per­
his coffee and some other things

I put a rubber band around

idea to go to work
his only hardship would be in the money will be planned.

frequent voluntary contributions
in the money will be planned.

trusting this summer (and in
years, to make your own gas gen­
societies as a whole for his very our input. If we are to

leaders of the NF A meeting­
years, to make your own gas gen­
societies as a whole for his very

Our January Green Revolu­

turkey. The interesting thing
is that while the homestead
are the concrete work of Leo Rainer, the cabinets and carpenters of Mr. Sprague, and the at­
ractive element in the $1.6 million stores by George Pettie.

I believe there are many more
people will cross this threshold (we have it for two years to come), to enjoy, because we have separated the development and meaning of the homestead-Council of School of Living.

Reactions, Suggestions Wanted

Some persons who had an early
chance of this property has im-
poned immediately Two are recurring.

"How absolutely marvelous about
the modern homestead... and the 100 acres
This is more like it. Now
writ in the childhood of a lot of us)
I don't mind. Here again, a

Thoughts on Homesteading. Part III—

We Must Not Only Grow Our
Food, But Preserve Itself

By Hal Porter

Keeping food would also pre­
tain, and I think that there
then someone advocates going back
ings and advising the drying, smoking and serving. This was one thing
which a large number of homesteaders
food saved in this way look better,
vitamins, and even some of the

sible poisons. It may entail a lot
load, and it should help with some of this, cutting
meat, too, etc. But then, per­
his coffee and some other things

I put a rubber band around

idea to go to work
his only hardship would be
in the money will be planned.

frequent voluntary contributions
in the money will be planned.

trusting this summer (and in
years, to make your own gas gen­
societies as a whole for his very

Our January Green Revolu­

turkey. The interesting thing
is that while the homestead
are the concrete work of Leo Rainer, the cabinets and carpenters of Mr. Sprague, and the at­
ractive element in the $1.6 mil­ ion stores by George Pettie.

I believe there are many more
people will cross this threshold (we have it for two years to come), to enjoy, because we have separated the development and meaning of the homestead-Council of School of Living.

Reactions, Suggestions Wanted

Some persons who had an early
chance of this property has im-
poned immediately Two are recurring.

"How absolutely marvelous about
the modern homestead... and the 100 acres
This is more like it. Now
writ in the childhood of a lot of us)
I don't mind. Here again, a

Thoughts on Homesteading. Part III—

We Must Not Only Grow Our
Food, But Preserve Itself

By Hal Porter

Keeping food would also pre­
tain, and I think that there
then someone advocates going back
ings and advising the drying, smoking and serving. This was one thing
which a large number of homesteaders
food saved in this way look better,
vitamins, and even some of the

sible poisons. It may entail a lot
load, and it should help with some of this, cutting
meat, too, etc. But then, per­
his coffee and some other things

I put a rubber band around

idea to go to work
his only hardship would be
in the money will be planned.

frequent voluntary contributions
in the money will be planned.