Two Summer Meetings Spark Further Activities in California

Mildred Loomis
From a School of Living Speaker—
Our Modern Cities Are Dying; Future Decentralization Will Be Necessary

By D. P. Hoffman

(Daniel Hoffman, 48 Park, Box 1, Berkeley, Calif., editor of The Coming Culture and other books about the Gandhian movement. This article is a summary of a talk given on June 14 at the School of Living area meeting in San Francisco on July 16.)

America has the most centralized culture in the world. The national government has exploded the surrounding country. The rural young people are being drawn into the city, thus causing a steady decay of the life of the country. Today, in America, this misdirection has disappeared, and foreign immigration has practically ceased. Its most regenerative force. Children are the answer to the shakes because of the evolution of our urban culture, it appears that America is currently being lost population in a few years. Despite the counter way with the disappearance of rural life and farm life, our agriculture is based on destruction, which affects the fertility of the soil and the health of the people.

Our great cities are dying in the center. There has been an even increasing number of the mentally and physically ill. Urban living is related to an increase of crime and smog plus other factors and actually change the ecology under which we live. The lack of is also frightening. It is a spiritual problem that will have to be faced. The spiritual culture has unleashed the evils of Pandemonium. It sounds like a pessimistic picture but so did the successful campaign speeches that every man who ran for mayor of San Francisco.

The betrayal of the materialist culture is becoming apparent to the rest of the world, and we are fast losing our moral leadership. This startling fact is the saddest aspect of the most famous social and philosophical thinkers. They have discovered that their theories morally cannot lead to the necessary peace and harmony that our country so desperately needs. This moral leadership is expected to come from the East.

Early American Communities

Historically we have built many small social communities such as those advocated by B. F. Skinner and others. This article is a summary of a few days ago, is being given a host of other factors which could happen on a large scale. The city has lost its leadership. This startling fact is the saddest aspect of the most famous social and philosophical thinkers. They have discovered that their theories morally cannot lead to the necessary peace and harmony that our country so desperately needs. This moral leadership is expected to come from the East.

The average citizen is truly independent of all such as food, clothing, and shelter. He has a mortgage on his life to this movement, has many social communities such as the Harmonists, etc.) was because it was not affected the average American culture of the post Civil War era. The farmer who has truly independent of food, clothing, and shelter. He has a mortgage on his life to this movement, has many social communities such as the Harmonists, etc.) was because it was not affected the average American culture of the post Civil War era. The farmer who has truly independent of food, clothing, and shelter. He has a mortgage on his life to this movement, has many social communities such as the Harmonists, etc.) was because it was not affected the average American culture of the post Civil War era. The farmer who has truly independent of food, clothing, and shelter. He has a mortgage on his life to this movement, has many social communities such as the Harmonists, etc.) was because it was not affected the average American culture of the post Civil War era. The farmer who has truly independent of food, clothing, and shelter. He has a mortgage on his life to this movement, has many social communities such as the Harmonists, etc.) was because it was not affected the average American culture of the post Civil War era. The farmer who has truly independent of food, clothing, and shelter. He has a mortgage on his life to this movement, has many social communities such as the Harmonists, etc.) was because it was not affected the average American culture of the post Civil War era.
on economics and government is variously interpreted as a means of enlightenment at future meetings.

Los Angeles Group
Martha Bale (Phoenix, Ariz.) reported that a larger group had met. Dr. Lowell Coote (San Diego) read the resolutions passed at the April meeting, outlined a proposed Health and Survival Community, and argued that Guatema-las, raised discussion on the importance of an effective, honest, and well-run home and solving problems here.

While visiting Santa Barbara (Santa Barbara) talked on "Looking Forward to Better Living." An anti-naturalist newcomer offered considerable negative comment.

The Green Revolution, September, 1966

THESE SCENES were snapped at Sycamore Hollow Homestead (Ralph Smart family), West Alexandria, Ohio, where some 135 adults, many children are growing up as an alternative to conventional living. The homestead, held July 4 weekend. As demonstrated here are: (top left) Soap Making, by Mrs. Ger­raud Weem, (lower left) Candle Dipping, by Mildred Loos; (center right) Pierce Scranton, 4121 Merrifield, Cincinnati, O.

THESE SCENES were snapped at Sycamore Hollow Homestead (Ralph Smart family), West Alexandria, Ohio, where some 135 adults, many children are growing up as an alternative to conventional living. The homestead, held July 4 weekend. As demonstrated here are: (top left) Soap Making, by Mrs. Ger­raud Weem, (lower left) Candle Dipping, by Mildred Loos; (center right) Pierce Scranton, 4121 Merrifield, Cincinnati, O.

Two Summer Meetings, cont’d

on economics and government is variously interpreted as a means of enlightenment at future meetings.

Los Angeles Group
Martha Bale (Phoenix, Ariz.) reported that a larger group had met. Dr. Lowell Coote (San Diego) read the resolutions passed at the April meeting, outlined a proposed Health and Survival Community, and argued that Guatema-las, raised discussion on the importance of an effective, honest, and well-run home and solving problems here.

While visiting Santa Barbara (Santa Barbara) talked on "Looking Forward to Better Living." An anti-naturalist newcomer offered considerable negative comment.

The Green Revolution, September, 1966

THESE SCENES were snapped at Sycamore Hollow Homestead (Ralph Smart family), West Alexandria, Ohio, where some 135 adults, many children are growing up as an alternative to conventional living. The homestead, held July 4 weekend. As demonstrated here are: (top left) Soap Making, by Mrs. Ger­raud Weem, (lower left) Candle Dipping, by Mildred Loos; (center right) Pierce Scranton, 4121 Merrifield, Cincinnati, O.

THESE SCENES were snapped at Sycamore Hollow Homestead (Ralph Smart family), West Alexandria, Ohio, where some 135 adults, many children are growing up as an alternative to conventional living. The homestead, held July 4 weekend. As demonstrated here are: (top left) Soap Making, by Mrs. Ger­raud Weem, (lower left) Candle Dipping, by Mildred Loos; (center right) Pierce Scranton, 4121 Merrifield, Cincinnati, O.

Two Summer Meetings, cont’d

on economics and government is variously interpreted as a means of enlightenment at future meetings.

Los Angeles Group
Martha Bale (Phoenix, Ariz.) reported that a larger group had met. Dr. Lowell Coote (San Diego) read the resolutions passed at the April meeting, outlined a proposed Health and Survival Community, and argued that Guatema-las, raised discussion on the importance of an effective, honest, and well-run home and solving problems here.

While visiting Santa Barbara (Santa Barbara) talked on "Looking Forward to Better Living." An anti-naturalist newcomer offered considerable negative comment.

The Green Revolution, September, 1966

THESE SCENES were snapped at Sycamore Hollow Homestead (Ralph Smart family), West Alexandria, Ohio, where some 135 adults, many children are growing up as an alternative to conventional living. The homestead, held July 4 weekend. As demonstrated here are: (top left) Soap Making, by Mrs. Ger­raud Weem, (lower left) Candle Dipping, by Mildred Loos; (center right) Pierce Scranton, 4121 Merrifield, Cincinnati, O.

THESE SCENES were snapped at Sycamore Hollow Homestead (Ralph Smart family), West Alexandria, Ohio, where some 135 adults, many children are growing up as an alternative to conventional living. The homestead, held July 4 weekend. As demonstrated here are: (top left) Soap Making, by Mrs. Ger­raud Weem, (lower left) Candle Dipping, by Mildred Loos; (center right) Pierce Scranton, 4121 Merrifield, Cincinnati, O.

Two Summer Meetings, cont’d

on economics and government is variously interpreted as a means of enlightenment at future meetings.

Los Angeles Group
Martha Bale (Phoenix, Ariz.) reported that a larger group had met. Dr. Lowell Coote (San Diego) read the resolutions passed at the April meeting, outlined a proposed Health and Survival Community, and argued that Guatema-las, raised discussion on the importance of an effective, honest, and well-run home and solving problems here.

While visiting Santa Barbara (Santa Barbara) talked on "Looking Forward to Better Living." An anti-naturalist newcomer offered considerable negative comment.

The Green Revolution, September, 1966

THESE SCENES were snapped at Sycamore Hollow Homestead (Ralph Smart family), West Alexandria, Ohio, where some 135 adults, many children are growing up as an alternative to conventional living. The homestead, held July 4 weekend. As demonstrated here are: (top left) Soap Making, by Mrs. Ger­raud Weem, (lower left) Candle Dipping, by Mildred Loos; (center right) Pierce Scranton, 4121 Merrifield, Cincinnati, O.

THESE SCENES were snapped at Sycamore Hollow Homestead (Ralph Smart family), West Alexandria, Ohio, where some 135 adults, many children are growing up as an alternative to conventional living. The homestead, held July 4 weekend. As demonstrated here are: (top left) Soap Making, by Mrs. Ger­raud Weem, (lower left) Candle Dipping, by Mildred Loos; (center right) Pierce Scranton, 4121 Merrifield, Cincinnati, O.